ITALY
Spring Break 2016
Global Perspectives in Educational Leadership

This short-term immersion is designed to provide future school leaders the opportunity to develop global perspectives in educational practices through school observations, volunteering, and engagement with Italian educators and administrators. Following several class meetings in NC, students will travel to Sansepolcro, Italy, to learn about and compare how different cultures approach globalization, and will explore how they can support curriculum internationalization efforts and develop culturally competent teachers in their schools.

Students will visit Rome and Florence, as well.

Program Dates:
On-campus: several sessions in spring semester
Travel Dates:
March 4-13, 2016
Cost:
$2,600

Cost includes: non-refundable application charge, ED course, survival Italian language instruction on-site, accommodations in a 16th century palazzo with breakfasts and lunches daily, lodging in Rome, school visits and excursions, in-country transportation, and international health insurance. Some meals, personal expenses, and airfare are not included.

Courses:
ED 590 - Special Topics in Teaching and Learning (3 cr)
or
Independent studies in education, with advisor’s approval (3 cr)

Apply Now!
studyabroad.ncsu.edu
Rolling admissions through October 15
Scholarships: apply by September 15

Program Contact Information:
Dr. Gregory Hicks
College of Education
gehicks@ncsu.edu

StudY abroArd
make the world your classroom
The University reserves the right to alter the program format and/or costs in case of conditions beyond its control. See Study Abroad Office policies.